Leander ISD utilizes K12 Insight Let's Talk as our customer service tool for parents and community members to connect stakeholders with information. It's more efficient than email and it's easier for us to collaborate and route questions.

Gathering community input

“

Let's Talk! gives us a familiar avenue to be able to collect data and input on a variety of topics. This will help us close that feedback loop, engage people in a systematic way, and hopefully drive some of those negative or controversial conversations off of public media and into a customer service portal, so we can address them directly and efficiently.”

Chief Communications Officer
Leander Independent School District

Increasing engagement

Dr. Troxell, Leander ISD's superintendent, uses Let's Talk! to host monthly Q&A sessions with the community around hot topics, including attendance zoning, college and career pathways, and technology.

Student Voice

Superintendent Dan Troxell, Ph.D. wants to hear from students. Each month, we share a new topic or prompt for student submissions. There is no length or format requirement; we want to give students an opportunity to engage with Dr. Troxell. We love getting artwork and photos or videos to accompany any submission.

Please provide us with contact information so we can follow-up. We may use submissions in local newspapers, on our website, or social media pages.

If you are a teacher submitting responses from your students, please list your contact information.

FEBRUARY

Voice for Change

We feel like our public schools play a critical role in developing the next generation's leaders. We celebrated Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in January and we celebrate Presidents Day in February. Who is a leader from history that you admire? Please share a story about a leader who inspires you and explain why.

Release: February 4, 2018
Due: February 11, 2018

Leander ISD amplifies student voices with student-focused landing pages, such as the superintendent's Student Voice page where students can share their thoughts on the monthly prompt.

Description

Leander ISD is collecting stories of world class students, staff and schools to share on our websites, media partners, social media, and presentations.

We want to hear about:

- State and national awards
- Unique projects and talents
- Stellar teacher and service
- Heartfelt stories of perseverance

Please be as specific as possible, include a photo when you can, and share a good phone number so we can follow-up with additional questions.

Driving change with data

Let's Talk! made it easy to quantify the volume and type of inquiries so we could confidently say, 'Here's what people are talking about. And here are the numbers behind that.'”
